KRZYŻOWA

the history

The Foundation is based in the palace complex at Krzyżowa in Lower Silesia, Poland - in the past the estate of the von Moltke family. During the National Socialist period, an opposition group initiated by Helmuth James von Moltke met here. Because of the meeting place, this organisation was called the Kreisau Circle. In 1989, Krzyżowa hosted the historic 'Reconciliation Mass' attended by Polish Prime Minister Tadeusz Mazowiecki and German Chancellor Helmut Kohl. The event marked the symbolic beginning of a new chapter in relations between Poland and Germany.
