

CALL FOR PARTICIPANTS
JUSTNOW - TRAINING OF MULTIPLIERS

30 October 2020 - 06 November 2020 | Krzyzowa, Poland

This Training of Multipliers is for 24 participants from Germany and Poland.

The aim is to equip a new generation of multipliers with learning approaches of the JustNow – Toolbox for Teaching Human Rights and develop together new educational materials (activity plans, exercises and timelines) which will be part of the JustNow - Toolbox for Teaching Human Rights.

WHAT IS JUSTNOW - A TOOLBOX FOR TEACHING HUMAN RIGHTS?

The “JustNow – A Toolbox for Teaching Human Rights” was created in response to internal evaluations and requests put forward by organizations and schools that previously participated in the Model International Criminal Court (MICC) project www.model-icc.org.

This learning platform is designed to support teachers, youth workers and young peer educators to actively create and use MICC-inspired learning approaches for human rights education. In order to make the abstract subject of human rights accessible to young people and relate it to their own life situations, the learning platform offers different materials for different types of learners.

The platform offers activity plans, exercises and timelines, as well as audio-visual content such as short animation movies which will help young people learn about human rights, diversity, basic democratic values and the rule of law independently or with the help of an educator. With the innovative approach of small-scale learning modules, this toolbox allows everyone to implement needs-tailored, innovative and engaging educational workshops.
